

Lunch at Chaucer College Canterbury

Chaucer College Canterbury IELTS Test Centre is situated on the campus of the University of Kent, approximately one kilometre from Canterbury City Centre. There are no food outlets or shops near the Test Centre. Consequently candidates may wish to have lunch at the College. The following conditions apply:

- A Lunch Ticket costs £7.
- Only candidates may purchase lunch (not persons accompanying candidates).
- Lunch Tickets must be purchased before the day of the IELTS Test. Please send a cheque or postal order for £7 made payable to CHAUCER COLLEGE.
- Write IELTS Lunch, your name, your address and your IELTS Test Date on the back of the cheque or postal order.
- Your Lunch Ticket will be posted to you.
- Lunch Tickets will NOT BE SOLD ON THE TEST DAY – ADVANCE PURCHASE ONLY.

The serving area will be open to IELTS candidates between 13.10 and 13.30, after Chaucer College resident students have been served their lunches. You must show your visitor pass which you will be given on the day of the test. You must give half of your Lunch Ticket to the kitchen staff. You must keep the other half of your Lunch Ticket with you on your tray as proof of payment until you have finished your meal.

You may have a soup, main course, salad from the salad bar, a dessert, using one tray. You may take only one dessert. There will be a vegetarian option. Soft drinks and water are available. Please collect all your food courses in one visit to the serving area. You will NOT be allowed to re-enter the serving area. Anyone found to be ignoring these rules will be reported to the IELTS Administrator, and may not receive their IELTS Test Report Form (IELTS Certificate).
